Takegurui Compulsive Gambler 88 is the 88th chapter of the popular manga series Takegurui. The chapter follows Yumeko Jabami as she takes on a new opponent in a high-stakes game of poker. With her signature blend of intelligence and recklessness, Yumeko pushes the limits of her opponent's sanity and forces them to confront their own gambling addiction.

The chapter begins with Yumeko being invited to a private poker game by a mysterious opponent. The opponent, a wealthy and powerful businessman, is known for his ruthless gambling tactics and his ability to drive his opponents to madness. Yumeko, intrigued by the challenge, accepts the invitation and arrives at the game with her usual confidence.

The game quickly becomes intense, with both players betting large sums of money on every hand. Yumeko, using her keen observation skills and her understanding of human psychology, is able to read her opponent's tells and predict his moves. As the game progresses, Yumeko's opponent becomes increasingly frustrated and begins to lose his composure. He starts making reckless bets and taking unnecessary risks, all in an attempt to win back the money he has lost.

Yumeko, sensing her opponent's desperation, continues to push him further and further into the abyss. She raises the stakes, calls his bluffs, and forces him to make increasingly dangerous bets. As the game reaches its climax, Yumeko's opponent finally snaps and goes all in, betting his entire fortune on a single hand.

Yumeko, with a cold and calculating expression, calls his bet and reveals her own hand. She has a full house, the highest possible hand in poker. Her opponent, defeated and broken, collapses in his chair, unable to comprehend how he could have lost. Yumeko, having won the game, stands up and walks away, leaving her opponent to wallow in his despair.
