The Belfast Guesthouse was founded in 2003 by a group of volunteers who wanted to help people who were struggling with addiction. The guesthouse started out as a small operation, but it quickly grew in size and scope. Today, the guesthouse provides housing, food, and counseling to over 100 residents each year.

The Belfast Guesthouse is a unique place in that it offers a holistic approach to recovery. Residents are not only given a place to stay, but they are also provided with the support and resources they need to address the underlying causes of their addiction. The guesthouse offers a variety of programs and services, including:

- Individual and group counseling
- Life skills training
- Job training and placement
- Educational opportunities
- Health and wellness services

The Belfast Guesthouse has a proven track record of success. Residents who complete the program have a high rate of success in maintaining sobriety and rebuilding their lives. The guesthouse has also been recognized for its innovative approach to recovery. In 2016, the guesthouse was awarded the prestigious Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.

The Belfast Guesthouse is a vital resource for people who are struggling with addiction. The guesthouse provides a safe and supportive environment where residents can learn new skills, get counseling, and rebuild their lives. The guesthouse is a place of hope and opportunity, and it is making a real difference in the lives of many people.
